USC's JUSTIN DUMAIS AND JEFF SHAFFER NAMED 1998-99 PAC-10 MEN'S DIVER AND COACH OF THE YEAR

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- USC's Justin Dumais and Jeff Shaffer have been named 1998-99 Pacific-10 Conference Men's Diver and Coach of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

Dumais, a sophomore from Ventura, Calif., claimed the Pac-10 triple crown for the second consecutive year, winning all three individual diving events at the Pac-10 Diving Championships in Federal Way, Wash. Dumais set Pac-10 records in all three events at the Championships. In the one-meter and three-meter events, Dumais broke his own Pac-10 records. In the platform, he broke the Pac-10 record of 817.90 set in 1994 by fellow Trojan Brian Earley with a final score of 823.95.

At the 1999 NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships, Dumais earned All-American honors following third place finishes in the one-meter and platform, and a fifth place finish in the three-meter. It is the second-straight year Dumais has won the Conference award.

Shaffer, in his four year at the helm of the USC diving program, led Pac-10 Diver of the Year Justin Dumais to three individual titles at the 1999 Pac-10 Diving Championships, as well as three Pac-10 records. Under Shaffer, USC claimed three of the top eight spots in all three diving finals at the Conference Championships. The Men's Coach of the Year award is the second of Shaffer's career, and second in as many years.

The Conference Diver and Coach of the Year awards are voted on by the coaches.

ARIZONA'S RYK NEETHLING AND CALIFORNIA'S NORT THORNTON NAMED 1998-99 PAC-10 MEN'S SWIMMER AND COACH OF THE YEAR

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- ARIZONA's Ryk Neethling and CALIFORNIA's Nort Thornton were named the 1998-99 Pacific-10 Conference Men's Swimmer and Coach of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

Neethling, a 6-3 junior from Bloemfontein, South Africa, won individual NCAA Championships in the 200, 500 and 1,650-yard freestyle events in Indianapolis, Ind. With the wins, Neethling becomes only the eighth person in the 76-year history of the Championships to accomplish the double-triple (victories in three events in back-to-back seasons). His wins give him seven NCAA individual titles in three years. It was also the second straight year Neethling defended his 1,650 crown. At the 1999 Pac-10 Swimming Championships in Long Beach, Calif., Neethling successfully defended his Conference titles in the 500 and 1,650 freestyle. It was the third consecutive year that he won the 1,650 free.

This marks the third year in a row Neethling has been named Pac-10 Swimmer of the Year. Only Dave Wharton of USC and Bill Barrett of UCLA have won the award three years in row. Wharton garnered the honor four times (1988-91).

In his silver anniversary season at California, Thornton's Golden Bears came within eight points of ending Stanford's 17-year hold on the Pac-10 Championship. At the Conference championships, his swimmers won four individual and one relay title. Thornton also coached Bart Kizierowski to a title in the 100 freestyle, and the Bears to a fourth place finish at the 1999 NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships in Indianapolis, Ind. The Men's Coach of the Year award is the fourth of Thornton's career, and the first since he won three in a row (1978-80).

The Swimmer and Coach of the Year honors are determined by a coaches vote.
