328th Student Assembly,
Senate Resolution 328-006

A Resolution

To call for respect of W&M Values, transparency, and accountability

The For the Bold Resolution

An Act of the 328th Student Assembly of the College of William and Mary,

Sponsored by Class President Conor Sokolowsky ('23, Men's Swimming Team)

Co-sponsored by Senator Owen Williams ('23), Senator Rory Fedorochko ('22), Senator Patrick Salsburg ('21), Senator Will Wasson (Law '21), Chair of the Senate Meghana Boojala ('22), Senator Peter R. Hayden (Business '21), Senator Maheen Saeed ('23), Senator Randall Riffle ('21), Class President Suhas Suddala ('22), Senator Jane Geiger ('21), Senator Vicky Morales ('22), Class President Aria Austin ('21), Senator Sailor Y. Miao ('24), Class President Vicka Heidt ('24) Senator Shaunna Scott ('23), Senator Isabella Strauss ('24), Senator Mia Tilman ('24), Senator Helen Tariku ('21), Senator Jahnavi Prabhala ('22), Senator Gloriana Cubero Fernandez ('24), Senator Nicholas Matuszewski (Law '21), Senator Eugene Lee ('23)

Supported by President Anthony Joseph ('21), Vice-President Kyle Vasquez ('21), Chief of Staff Loni Wright ('21)

WHEREAS, the men's and women's gymnastics, men's and women's swimming, men's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball teams are all very successful, producing 22 Colonial Athletic Association championships, 36 All-Americans, two national champions, an Olympian, three Rhodes Scholars, 29 Phi Beta Kappas, two former world record titles, and four former American record titles, and have a total of more than 5,000 alumni;¹

WHEREAS, additionally, in 2019-20, the men's gymnastics had the second highest team GPA nationally, at 3.572, the men's and women's swimming teams made the Collegiate Swimming & Diving Coaches Association's Scholar All-America list for their exceptional grades, and 54 athletes from the seven teams cut earned GPAs of at least 3.5, qualifying them for the annual Provost Awards and beating out the William & Mary student body average GPA of 3.4;²

WHEREAS, in 2019-20, men's swimming, with no scholarships or a diving well and with a minimal budget, won its sixth consecutive Colonial Athletic Association championship, with senior Colin Wright as an All-American and Colonial Athletic Association Men's Swimmer of the Year.³ Graduate student Ben Skopic '19 won the Colonial Athletic Association's 2019-20 Leadership and Sports Excellence Award for Men's

Swimming & Diving.⁴ In track, JP Trojan won the 3,000 and 5,000 meter run at the IC4A track championships, the first Tribe athlete to ever do so. Theo Chambers set school records in the 200 and 400 meter dash. In gymnastics, Katie Waldman set a school record with a 9.925 routine on bars;⁵

WHEREAS, two head coaches whose programs were cut won Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year honors in 2019-20: Mike Powell in men's gymnastics and Nate Kellogg in men's swimming;⁶

WHEREAS, on June 16th, 2020, the BOV entered into an extended closed session discussing the future of the Athletics Department;

WHEREAS on June 26th, 2020, 10 days after the BOV discussed the future of the Athletic Department, Director of Athletics Samantha Huge communicated to Tribe Club and the Athletics Department that no sports were at risk of being cut and donors continued to pledge money to the Athletic Department believing that it would benefit all 23 varsity sport programs;

WHEREAS, on September 3rd, the William & Mary community was notified of the decision to cut these varsity teams, affecting 118 student-athletes and 13 coaches. The decision was made after student athletes returned to campus and signed housing agreements, and after the freshmen lost a year of eligibility by registering as NCAA athletes;

WHEREAS, none of these affected members of our community were consulted during the decision-making process, and were only notified of the decision in a 7-minute long scripted Zoom call with no Q&A session or further clarification and received a plagiarized written notice from Stanford University's response to cutting athletics;

WHEREAS, on September 11th in a meeting with alumni, Director of Athletics Samantha Huge admitted that it was the position of the College that these teams would be disbanded even before she was hired in 2017 as part of a "strategic and philosophical" realignment about what William & Mary's athletics program should look like;

WHEREAS, at the same meeting, Huge admitted that "it is not just a financial decision" to eliminate the seven athletic teams, and that William & Mary "wants athletics to assist in raising the profile of the institution" despite the fact that the teams selected for elimination are among the most academically and competitively successful at the College, currently and historically;⁷

WHEREAS, the Administration allowed current freshmen athletes to be recruited despite the apparent long term plans to disband these teams, deceptively depriving them of their ability to make an informed decision about their long term athletic careers;

WHEREAS, over the past three years, the Athletics Department has become characterized by a corrosive work environment. Intimidation, bullying, fist-pounding, yelling, and more have become regular meeting occurrences. In addition, over 75 of the original 120 Athletics staff members have either left voluntarily or been removed, and many of them are afraid to speak out for fear of retaliation against their peers and former colleagues still within the department. Complaints have reached the highest echelons of administration, including BOV members, only to fall on deaf ears. This “philosophical realignment” is threatening everything past, current, and future William & Mary generations want to be a part of;

WHEREAS, over the past three years, operating deficits from the three revenue sports have increased by $1.6 million while they increased by only $0.3 million for all other 20 sports combined. These statistics call into question the underlying motivations and long-term goals of the Athletic department, as this is an unsustainable financial model that is not adequately addressed in the recent athletic decisions. There is yet again a lack of transparency in William & Mary’s decision-making processes⁸;

WHEREAS, the administration has refused to explore or accept any alternative funding sources for these teams and, when the possibility of a fundraising campaign to keep the programs alive was brought to the administration, it was reiterated that the decision was final and that any and all funds raised for the teams would be directed to the new club sports programs;

WHEREAS, Rector John Littel has claimed that “Every program was given a target that was developed after an analysis of multi-year contributions by each sport and coaches, athletes, and alumni were actively engaged to help achieve these targets”, despite the fact that no such goals were set and neither athletes, coaches, nor alumni were notified of these analyses and targets and, additionally, W&M Director of Athletics Samantha Huge has declined several teams’ offers to fundraise the necessary amounts to become entirely self-sufficient through endowment draws.

WHEREAS, the timeline of events as previously outlined could be interpreted by the William & Mary Honor Code and NCAA Division I Code of Ethics as a “presentation of false information with the intent to deceive” on the part of the administration that “adversely affect[ed] the university community”⁹;

WHEREAS, the open letter to the community regarding the decision making process of the athletic cuts plagiarized a similar message provided by Stanford University and this violation of the William & Mary Honor Code undermines the very fabric of our social community that has previously been held to a high standard of accountability, and threatens the viability of credible remote learning;

WHEREAS, William & Mary alumni have made substantial donations to support the school’s 23 varsity sports, and the disbandment of these seven is a serious disservice to these donors¹⁰;

⁸ Numbers pulled from public record financial statements and analyzed by Business School faculty

WHEREAS, William & Mary students each pay $2,002 yearly for the Intercollegiate Athletics Fee, $381 yearly for the operations of Kaplan Arena, and $63 yearly for additional athletics facilities¹¹ and thus deserve to have a lot more input in the decisions of what their money is funding;

WHEREAS, the administrations' continued lack of transparency in decision making, whether it be in regards to COVID testing, pass-fail implementation, or athletics, has relentlessly distracted the Student Assembly from addressing the concerns of the students we are elected to represent;

WHEREAS, because of the actions of the administration, many student-athletes, who could have gone to different institutions to compete and participate in the sport they love, now feel trapped in a community that is led by an administration that seems to not value them.

Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Student Assembly of the College of William and Mary:

1. Vehemently opposes the manner in which this incredibly tumultuous decision was conveyed to student-athletes and finds it appalling that our long-standing concerns regarding transparency and increased communication have still not been addressed.
2. Demands the administration and college as a whole improve its transparency in the decision-making process by:
 - a. Including students, donors, faculty, alumni, and other stakeholders in the decision-making process,
 - b. Including students, donors, faculty, alumni, and other stakeholders in the communication process after these decisions have been made, including the wording of messages,
3. Calls on the administration to more effectively consider the opinions of students and the Student Assembly during the decision-making process, as significant portions of Student Assembly's time has been devoted to responding to concerns raised by students as a result of administrative decisions that were made without ample student input nor clear communication;
 - a. Encourages a partnership with the administration to help with messaging and communication to the student body.
4. Further calls on donors to press the administration on how their donations, given to support the activity of 23 varsity sports, can possibly be respected when there are now only 16 varsity sports.
5. Asks the administration to agree to a live and recorded question and answer session with student-athletes, donors, and alumni.
6. Formally recognizes and sanctions the Save the Seven movement and expresses hope that some, if not all, of the cut teams can be reinstated as varsity sports.
7. Demands that the administration re-evaluate the role of the Athletic Department at William & Mary, and consider bringing the academic and athletic communities closer together by involving and being transparent with the larger campus community in the decision making processes.
8. Requests that the administration build trust with the student body again through actions that uphold William & Mary values and One Tribe One Family. We as Student Assembly will work as allies to make sure that this trust is restored, but the acknowledgement of past failures and initiative for new courses of action must originate with administration.

9. Calls into serious question the “philosophical realignment” of the Athletic department. It has thus far been characterized by a toxic workplace environment, violations against William & Mary’s core institutional values, and unsustainable financial management. We call on administration to re-evaluate the department’s long-term goals, and if our current bearing is in line with our traditional Tribe values.
